OUR SERVICE COMMITMENT

At North Coast Photographic Services, quality and service are our products. The times stated for each of our different services will be followed as closely as possible, and every effort will be made to deliver your order on time. However, these are estimated service times only, and North Coast Photographic Services will not assume responsibility for any delays. Sundays and holidays are not considered working days. We reserve the right to refuse any film, negative, or digital media, that in our opinion, will not produce a satisfactory print, or, in our opinion, is of questionable subject matter.

LIABILITY If your film is lost or damaged while we are handling or processing your film, North Coast Photographic Services will replace your film with new film. However, except for such replacement of lost or damaged film, North Coast Photographic services assumes no responsibility for any Film, negatives, transparencies, art work, photographs or digital images left in our possession for processing; more-over, the handling and processing of your film is done at your sole risk and without warranty or liability on our part (except for replacement of damaged or lost film) even though the defect, damage or loss is caused by our negligence or other fault or by the negligence or other fault of others.
